PRESENT A BENCH/BAR BROWN BAG LUNCHEON:

SAN FRANCISCO SUPERIOR COURT

March 17, 2006
Noon - 1:30 p.m.

Hon. Richard A. Kramer
San Francisco Superior Court
Civic Center Courthouse
400 McAllister St.
San Francisco, California

The Litigation Section and ABTL are presenting a series of informal "brown bag" luncheons during which interested members of the bar can meet informally with members of the California Judiciary in a small group setting. We are honored to have the Honorable Richard A. Kramer of the San Francisco Superior Court participate in this program. Judge Kramer currently presides in Complex Case Department.

At the Bench-Bar Lunch, Judge Kramer will discuss how a case is determined to be a "complex case" under Rule 1800 and how practices and procedures in the Complex Department differ from other civil departments. He will provide suggestions regarding written and oral advocacy and answer questions from the participants.

The Bench-Bar Lunch will be held March 17, 2006 from Noon to 1:30 p.m. in the San Francisco Superior Court Judges' Conference Room on the 6th floor (across from the elevators) – Rm 617. Those who plan to attend should bring their own "brown bag" lunch. The program is open to all Litigation Section and ABTL members, but space is limited. Those interested in attending must register no later than March 15, 2006, by contacting Rick Seabolt at RLSeabolt@DuaneMorris.com

This event has been approved for .75 hours of MCLE credit by the State Bar of California.
